

October 14th 2012 will be the final Ottawa Dancers' Bazaar presented by TAV Creations and Halyma's Belly Dance.

Well, that pretty much says it, but to elaborate...

I have been organizing the Ottawa Dancers' Bazaar, in one way or another, since June of 1999 and have had a great time seeing it grow, ebb and flow and meeting amazing people along the way. And now, after much thought and soul searching, I will be retiring as organizing maven for this event.

I want to thank you all for your amazing support, as returning vendors, supportive patrons, volunteers and community members who have been there throughout the years. It has been a pleasure working with you all, and I plan to continue being a supportive member of Ottawa's Belly dance etc community by encouraging others in their endeavours, promoting through the Dancers' News and patronizing your events as best I can.

At this time, I do not know if anyone else will take on the torch of the Dancers' Bazaar and choose to run a similar event, or perhaps this opening will be filled with some new exciting ventures that will also offer the chance to vendors/exhibitors to showcase their wares.

If anyone does choose to step up and take over the concept, I will be sure to pass along their contact info to you as vendors. Again, I thank you for your continued support and attendance for the past Bazaar's and hope to see the October 14th event go out with a bang!

Yours in gratitude and appreciation for years are great memories,
Tracey { Halyma }

PS. For those who are participating in this fall's Bazaar, please know that I will be putting every feasible effort into promotion and spreading the word to make it as big and fun as possible, as I say, I want to go out with a bang! And hope you also promote, encourage and cajole your people into joining us too!
